

Minutes from General SHS PTSA Meeting, Tuesday Sept. 12

Principal Cathy Moore opened the General SHS PTSA meeting in the Sanderson auditorium at the beginning of Meet the Teacher Night, at 7:07 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 12.

- Ms. Moore indicated that the official 10-day count was 1,988 students.
- She thanked everyone for being there, and invited communication with parents.
- She encouraged students to be involved outside of class.

Co-President Anne Sherron

- Presented the “They and Somebody” skit with Co-President Pete Prodan.
- She apologized for website misdates. (Secretary’s Note: This is for incorrect dates left from last year, which remained posted prior to September 12. Dates have since been corrected.)
- She cited various ways to maintain communication.
- She called attention to the membership Table in the lobby (Tess).
- She introduced Pete.

Co-President Pete Prodan

- Discussed the budget that was printed on the back of the agenda.
- Invited questions
- There was a movement to approve the budget.
- The movement was seconded.
- Budget was approved.
- Pete thanked Ms. Moore for being an outstanding principal.
- He thanked the administrative staff and teachers.
- He thanked his PTSA fellows, in particular Gay Brothers, Kim Sylvester, and Rebecca martin.
- He also thanked everyone who finds some way to get involved in Sanderson.
- Last order of business: Pete introduced John Marsland, who discussed the need for the upcoming Bond. He compared the Bond to getting a mortgage to pay for the school, and explained the comparative cost effectiveness of the Bond. He urged all to
 1. Go to the polls.
 2. Vote “yes” for the Bond.
 3. Tell three neighbors and ask them to do the same.

Cathy Moore

- introduced the administrative staff on stage: Mr. Bizzell, Mr. Butler, Mr. Warren, and Ms. Battle.
- She discussed the procedures for Meet the Teacher Night.
- She thanked all for coming.
- She again invited communication.
- Meeting was dismissed at 7:25 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Judy Dove
Secretary